Enrique Benitez II, Esq. is the founding member of The Benitez Firm, PLLC, a law firm located in White Plains, NY. The Benitez Firm’s primary areas of practice include family law, landlord/tenant law, and criminal defense. Mr. Benitez received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Manhattanville and a Juris Doctor degree from the State University at Buffalo School of Law. He was employed for four years at a major landlord/tenant law firm after receiving his JD degree in 1999. During this period he represented landlords throughout New York City. Prior to starting his law practice, Enrique contracted himself out to various law firms as litigation support.

He holds memberships in the Westchester County Bar Association, the Federal Bar Council and the Assigned Counsel Plan of the New York Unified Court System. Through his membership in the assigned counsel plan he represents individuals throughout Westchester and The Bronx in Family and Criminal Court matters, at no cost to the client.

Enrique is proud to serve on the College’s Alumni Association Board.
