Manhattanville School of Business Masters in Human Resources Degree ranked one of top in the country

College Choice releases its 2016 Rankings

(Purchase, NY September 21, 2016) College Choice, an authority in college and university rankings and resources, has published its 2016 ranking for the Best Masters in Human Resources Degree Programs and The School of Business' M.S. in Human Resource Management and Organizational Effectiveness (MS HROE) program made this esteemed list.

“College Choice curated its 2016 ranking for Best Masters in Human Resources Degree Programs by collecting information from individual school websites, other ranking sites, and the U.S. News and World Report site. Factors that were the main consideration for this ranking included academic reputation, student retention, networking and internship opportunities, and more. “

The M.S. in Human Resource Management and Organizational Effectiveness program is a 36 credit program, taught by top industry professionals and offered in a convenient weekend format. The program offers two concentrations: Human Resources Management for those who are looking to delve into specific areas within HR and Organizational Effectiveness, for those looking to take on a more consultative role within an organization.
