International Guide
Involved in the world we will help shape

Students from across the globe come to Manhattanville to get a first-rate liberal arts education within easy reach of New York City. Manhattanville graduates take their educations around the world, contributing their ideas and energy to communities everywhere.

A Helping Hand

Manhattanville’s Office of International Student Services is always available to students — offering counseling on immigration matters, helping with the cultural adjustment process, and connecting students with services and activities on campus and throughout the community.

A Warm Welcome

With offerings from workshops and shopping trips to parties and barbecues, the annual Ready, Set, Go program provides three days of orientation and fun for new international students. The international student advising staff will be on hand to answer any questions and make sure your transition to Manhattanville is as smooth as possible.
