The Center for Student Accommodations
CSA’s hours will remain the same: Monday-Friday 9AM-5PM. If you have any questions regarding accommodations please email Alyssa Campo-Carman (Director) at Alyssa.campocarman@mville.edu or Joe Gaines (Assistant Director) at Joseph.Gaines@mville.edu. For general inquires please call (914) 323-1434.

The Writing Center
The Writing Center will offer asynchronous and synchronous online tutoring appointments to all undergraduate and graduates students beginning March 23, 2020 through May 6, 2020. Hours are Monday-Thursday 10 AM-9 PM, Friday 10 AM-6 PM, and Sunday 4 PM-9 PM. Students can email writingcenter@mville.edu or visit the Writing Center's website to submit an eTutoring appointment request.

The Academic Resource Center
- Peer Tutoring: Students should continue to schedule Peer Tutoring appointments through the Starfish "Courses" tab. This link will give students the names and schedules of Peer Tutors for their courses. From there, they can schedule a meeting with the Peer Tutor in Starfish, or email them to make an appointment. Peer Tutors will be holding their sessions synchronously online through Blackboard Collaborate Ultra. Once an appointment has been scheduled, Peer Tutors will send students a link to a Bb Collaborate session.

- Supplemental Instruction (SI): For courses that have Supplemental Instruction Leaders, weekly SI sessions will be held through Blackboard Collaborate. SI Leaders will email students the link to Blackboard Collaborate sessions, which will happen at the same time each week. The ARC website lists the current SI sessions and courses with peer tutoring, as well as student instructions for scheduling Peer eTutoring and online SI sessions. students a link to a Bb Collaborate session.

Pass/Fail Policy
THE WITHDRAWAL DEADLINE IS MONDAY, MARCH 30, 2020
For the Spring 2020 semester, all School of Arts and Sciences courses will be graded using a Pass/Fail system. Students may ask for an exception on a per class basis and choose to request a traditional letter grade if they wish. The deadline to switch spring 2020 courses from Pass/Fail to letter grades is Friday, April 10. To switch to letter grades click here.

- Students who are depending on grades in order to enter competitive graduate programs may decide to receive letter grades in classes in their major area of study.
- Students who are taking a class with the hope of a letter grade improving their GPA may choose to receive a letter grade
- Students in the education program (or who plan to pursue a New York State-approved master's degree in Education in the future), NY requires that students have undergraduate breadth and depth in the liberal arts and sciences as prerequisites for the degree program. These students should opt for letter grades in all General Education classes.
If you are unsure whether to opt for a letter grade, students are encouraged to contact academic.advising@mville.edu for support in making those decisions.

Student Health and Counseling
SHAC will continue to operate remotely. If you have any questions or would like to book an e-appointment please call (914) 323-7277.

Residence Life
As a result of the announcement from the Governor of the State of New York with a mandate to cease all non-essential functions and reduce workforce by 100%, we are now required to ask all residents to leave the residence halls. The New York State mandate goes into effect Sunday, March 22 at 8:00pm. All residents are encouraged, but not required, to vacate their rooms by Sunday, March 22 at 8:00pm.
- If you are unable to remove your belongings at this time, simply notify residence life staff at 914-323-5217 to make alternate arrangements.
- If you opt to stay in the residence halls beyond March 22, we cannot guarantee that the health department will not impose a mandatory quarantine and/or isolation if fellow residents test positive for COVID-19.
- All residents who opt to remain in the residence halls must notify Residence Life staff and sign a waiver that they will provide.
